afs students share
contrast of experiences

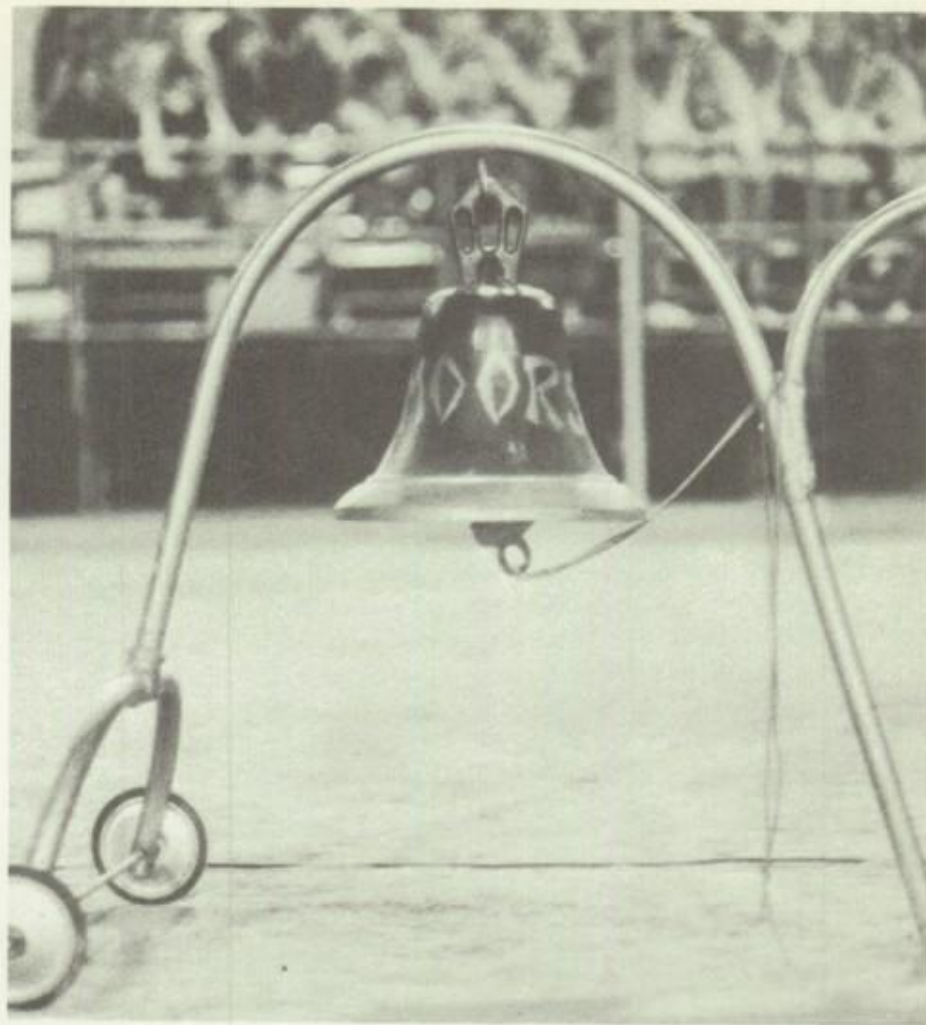

Continuing the AFS tradition at AHS, this year's two captivating foreign students-Maria Peña from Columbia, and Christine Doerfler from Austria, provided an experience of cultural exchange. Both girls were actively involved in school and social activities, joining several clubs and fitting easily into the vast puzzle of American life.

Maria was an honorary member of Pequenitas service club and Christine of Las Marvillas service organization. The girls also shared an active interest in sports-Maria enjoys basketball, football, and horseback riding; Austria's climate and terrain provides Christine with an opportunity to ski, ice-skate, and hike, Maria's other interests include International Club and a love for mathematics. The Austrian coed is a member of German club and takes an active interest in the humanities.

spirit makers motivate moors

Spirit was aroused by this year's devoted pep squad at athletic events and assemblies. Their performances incited "MOOR" enthusiasm, wherever they went. Varsity athletes were proud to display their "Home of a Mighty Moor" poster which the pep squad placed at each team member's house the night before a big game.

During Keppel week, Moors viewed the funeral march of Kissy Keppel. At a final salute at Moor Field, honoring the Tri-City Champs, Kissy Keppel was demolished.

The twenty four pep squad members attended summer training camp and emerged as winners of the spirit jug and spirit stick.

Debate helps build a strong aggressive nature mostly employed in outside conversation. Participation in various events at tournaments heightens one's competitive aspects so that he soon aspires to become a bigger and better American. The high point in Debate is the receiving of trophies and the all important certificate, familiar to all debators. The Debate activities of the year culminate in the tournament known as Nationals. This is what every debator lives for. The all important aspect of Debate is the Coach, Mr. Hagglund.

legislators propose campus innovations

For the first time the student legislature initiated parliamentary procedure to organize their discussions. This action along with the cooperation of the attentive legislators, hastened the passage of a motion for the coffee machine, a motion to send $1000 to the one-man, one-vote litigation, and other worthwhile projects. Speakers for semesters I and II were Wes Beverlin and Steve Metter.

moor excels in study of current issues

In addition to its extensive coverage of campus life, the Moor this year investigated issues concerning the educational welfare of AHS students.

Under the leadership of Semester I and II editors-in-chief Peter Wong and Glenn Kawasaki, the AHS student newspaper examined the problems of the school district in financing the cost of education, including the court challenge to the state's two-thirds majority rule for passage of school bond issues and the cutbacks in the school budget.

The Moor also looked at the school's program of counseling and guidance, as well as a series of stories on curriculum to coincide with the evaluation of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

Also, the Moor did a study on the role of student government in campus life, and provided for student expression of opinion through "Letters to the Editor" and tear-off surveys.

This year, the Moor was named best high school newspaper in the UCLA and California State College, Los Angeles journalism days. The paper also won its tenth straight "All-American" rating.

Guiding the staff was Mr. Ted Tajima, who has served as Moor advisor for 21 years.

Here are the people responsible for this book. Faced with a duty to record the year's events, they, to the best of their abilities, have carried out their task. Although the yearbook will be more personally rewarding to these people as part of their work, it is in no way solely an outlet for their emotional or artistic expressions. The staff wanted to make Alhambra's yearbook different, focusing on the individual. So now you hold in your hands a journal including the usual high school stuff, but maybe a yearbook a little more real and contemporary.

commission works to improve ahs government

In an effort to build a stronger and more effective government, the fall 1969 Commission conducted open commission meetings of commission and legislature, revised the seven point system, sent representatives to the Redlands leadership conference, formed a student accreditation committee, and worked daily in split committees concerning constitutional revision or other student activities. Included among their other accomplishments were initiating Kolor Klash Day, in connection with the Kartoon Kaleidoscope Homecoming game and dance, and making the Christmas committee a senior privilege.

chamber singers appear at cocoanut grove

Mr. Tony Palmer is the talented director of AHS musical groups.

Auditioned from the A Cappella Choir, the twenty performers rehearse after school hours. The literature studied ranges from medieval through contemporary. Because of many community appearances, the repertoire includes lighter and popular music also. During this school year, the Chamber Singers began by appearing at the Coconut Grove in Los Angeles for an Industry-Education banquet attended by top industry personnel and educators from all of Southern California. Many community performances are given in addition to festivals attended.

The sixty-one voice A Cappella Choir represents Alhambra in their many performances in the community and around the Southern California area. Selected after strict auditions in musicianship and voice, the group sings a variety of literature from all periods and styles of music. Their activities included Christmas performances at Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, the annual Elks Club Memorial Service, caroling in town Dickens costumes, Distric Music Festival with the A Cappella Choirs from San Gabriel and Mark Keppel High Schools, many performances for the elementary schools, and the annual Choral Spring Concert. This year, the A Cappella Choir gave their first full length assembly for the student body on February 16.

commission II strengthens student rights

Under the leadership of Mike Bruno, the Spring Commission worked to strengthen the Constitutional revisions of the Fall Commission. A major concern of the body, is their involvement in the S.O.S. drug program. In honor of outstanding contributions to the athletic program at AHS, the Joe Helfrich trophy, for the Most Valuable Varsity Basketball Player, was initiated. Commission conducted open Commission meetings, attended Legislature meetings, promoted and directed an elementary school seminar, made appropriations for needed athletic equipment, and questioned eligibility requirements with the administration.

sports queen graces spring court

Tension mounts as the 1970 Spring Sports Princesses await crowning.

Villainess, Maxine Mascara (Marie Perrino), tries to gain the attention of the hero, Balderdash Trustworthy (Bob Pearsall).

Villain, Jay Tamarack Gargle (Tom Recchion), and Maxine plot the destruction of the hero and heroine.

'true blue and trusted': hilarity in melodrama

Heroine, Lilly Lackamoney (Robyn Gray), cries, "No! No! A thousand times no!"

On February 25 and 26, Mrs. Burke's first year drama classes performed the melodrama, True Blue and Trusted. The plot was of the typical hero-villain type. Not only did the play provide entertainment for several English classes, but also was a valuable learning experience for the drama students and the stagecraft class which supplied the arena theater.

"Hush up you old coot!" screams Grandma Lackamoney, (Catherine Metz).

The villain is foiled as the final wedding scene unfolds.

coed reaps coveted award

The Girls' League Creed Award was given this semester to a deserving senior girl, Cathy MacDonald. She exemplifies the qualities of friendliness, truthfulness, and unselfishness set in the Creed. Cathy is a girl who always goes out of her way to help someone, a girl whose friendliness is contagious, and a girl whose enthusiasm makes every project a success.

The Blue and Gold sign at the Alhambra-Keppel football game read "Year of the Moors"- and truly, it was. The victorious pre-league encounter with La Serna High ended a seventeen game losing streak and thus, set the stage for five exciting league wins by the Moor machine. Noted standouts were halfback Craig Blower with a season total of 1187 yards gained and 10 touchdowns and fullback Dave Simon who tallied 897 yards gained and 13 touchdowns. Senior Kirk Boyce's size and power proved to be a constant threat to opposing defensive linemen while soccer-style kicker Marc Tabak, noted for his dead accuracy, gave our scoreboard many points after touchdowns. The San Gabriel game saw a strong Moor defense retain the Matador offense while the only points of the game were scored on 37 and 41 yard field goals kicked by Vito Glorioso. Quality, depth, spirit and pride led the Moor squad on to climax the season with a 46-19 victory over cross-town rival Mark Keppel. With this, the varsity gridders brought the Tri-City championship home to Alhambra.

The smile of victory reflects on the faces of Coach McAllister, center Nick Buckmeyer and Coach Beam.

1969 was a rebuilding year for the Moors Cross-Country team. The team was composed of Sophomores and Juniors with little experience and great determination.

With the potential and this year's Frosh-Soph team, next year's varsity will be the best in recent years.

Three in a row finish against Arcadia.

The 1970 Varsity Basketball season saw a small but determined team fluctuate between exciting wins and upsetting losses. Disregarding their lack of depth and height, the cagers highlighted the season by placing first in their own Alhambra Tournament. In doing so, Wrye's men defeated Cresenta Valley, ranked number two in C.I.F. Overall team unity and spirit motivated the Moors to win the most morale-boosting game by defeating cross-town rival Mark Keppel, 70-51.

service clubs assist school, scholars, community

One of the goals of AHS service clubs is to bring the school and community closer together. This goal is accomplished through service. Along with the community, the clubs campaign for organizations such as the March of Dimes, and Easter Seals.

Each week girls' service clubs are required to make cookies, stuffed animals, or tray favors, which they distribute to various hospitals and orphanages.

This year the boys' clubs built and guarded Rose Parade floats, along with ushering at school functions and collecting food and clothing for the annual Christmas Project.

many times a day i realize how much my own outer and inner life is built upon the labors of my fellow-men, both living and dead, and how earnestly i must exert myself in order to give in return as much as i have received.

principal endorses new dimensions

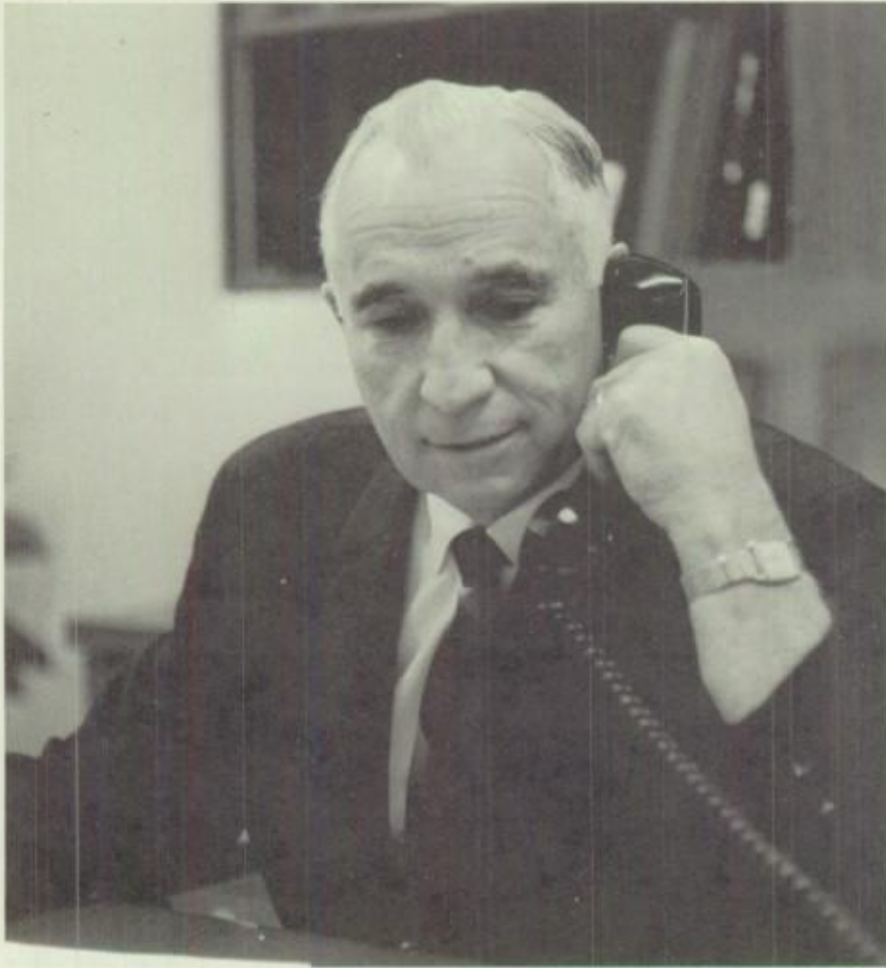

Alhambra High School has matched education's progressive march toward individualized instruction step for step. The advancements achieved allowed for flexibility and consideration of current social problems surfacing a revelant and contemporary view among students and instructors. New dimensions of the individual crystallized as a result of independent study, student challenge, advanced placement courses, and principal's forum. Dilating views came under the initiation of ethnic studies and television production classes, offering new experiences in the course of the students eminent cradle of individualism.

if we open a quarrel between the past and the present, we shall find that we have lost the future
. . . now this is not the end.
it is not even the beginning of the end. but it is, perhaps, the los laureadeans receive top senior honor

Fifteen outstanding students were chosen to the senior honorary society, Los Laureados. The members are selected on criteria of service to the school, citizenship, leadership, and a cumulative grade average of 3.0. Seniors submit activity sheets, and three independent committees—faculty, senior, junior—make their selections.

SENIOR COUNCIL—Standing: Gayle Minni, Mary Grijalva, Russ Miculich, Connie Sexsmith, Bobby Lewis, Karen van den Bosch, Connie Theetge. Sitting: Dannine Trapp, Ray Nassief.

Led by president Ray Nassief and other members of the Senior Council, and counselled by advisor, Mr. Katzmann, the senior class took leading roles in numerous activities.

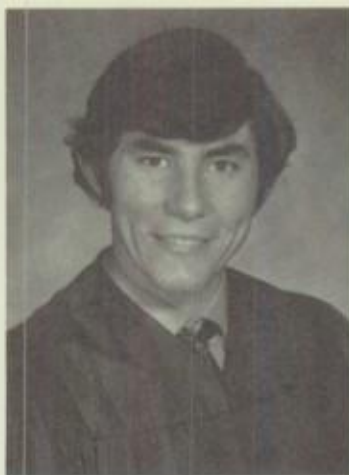

In athletics, drama, debate, scholarship, and student government, many of the most enthusiastic participants were seniors.

Early in the year a vigorous Senior Council was kept busy with several projects. The council supported school spirit at football games, battled for increased senior privileges and planned an after-game dance.

As the year progressed and graduation grew near, the council set out plans for the senior gift, Baccalaureate, the Senior Luncheon, and especially the All-Night Party.
